

John Burton

123 Sesame Street, Apt. ABC
Anytown, USA 88888
Phone: (555) 555-1111
Fax: (555) 555-5151
Email: jburton@gogogadget.edu

- Objective Management Consultant in the fields of Engineering, Technology and Field Services
- Education 1971–1975 University of New Mexico Albuquerque, NM
B.S., Computer Science and Telecommunications
Graduated Summa Cum Laude
- Professional Development Actively participate in ongoing professional development. Currently enrolled in the Executive MBA program from the Anderson Schools of Management at the University of New Mexico, expected to graduate in Spring 2003.
- Experience
- 1990–1994 U.S. Forest Service Durango, CO
Senior Field Service Manager
Rapidly promoted to plan, direct, and promote Advanced Testing Systems for the U.S. Dept. of the Interior.
Full responsibility for personnel development, budgetary management, safety and environmental issues, quality control, technical processes, and strategic planning.
Led a team of 25 field operators, 12 engineers, and 15 maintenance employees.
Controlled an operating budget of $5.4 million.
- 1985–1990 Johnson and Lund Albuquerque, NM
R & D Engineer
In charge of digital processing of the telephone centralized systems.
Redesigned central board and designed printer board and motherboard resulting in a smaller board and a production cost savings of 20%.
Worked in collaboration with colleague to develop digital voice recording device which enabled callers to leave messages in the central station.
- Technical Expertise Operating Systems & Languages: Windows NT/3.1x/95/98, MS-DOS, Macintosh OS, OP-Maxis, VMS, Cyberpack CSU, C programming Language
- Software Applications Microsoft Word, Excel, Access, Binder, WordPerfect, Netscape, Explorer, Routine Inspection and Test of Equipment (RITE), Advanced Perforating Analysis (APAN)